Christmas is just around the corner and this is a great time of the year to consider giving back to community

Help your friend/neighbor/stranger

Our dream is that ANYONE who wants to learn a musical instrument is able to register regardless of their financial situation. There are families who at times struggle to pay tuition for their children. If you would like to donate any number of lessons (one, seven or more) to help other students continue learning music, please contact Sister Carol Ann Gambsky or Dr. Varshavski.

Also, you may want to consider a Christmas gift for your family members and/or friends with lessons/group classes.

DOUBLE CONTRABASS and SUBCONTRABASS FLUTE

Flutes are usually thought of as small, higher-pitched instruments, but there are other types of flutes that are larger and produce lower notes. The subcontrabass flute plays a fourth below the contrabass flute, and the pipe is over 15 feet long. You can see the subcontrabass flute in the image on the right. On the left is a double contrabass flute; both instruments are played by flutist Maria Ramey.

cool facts

The Boardwalk Hall Auditorium Organ in Atlantic City, New Jersey, is the largest pipe organ ever built, based on the number of pipes. When the hall opened in 1929, the seating capacity was 42,000 people. To fill that huge space, the organ uses over 33,000 pipes! The console has seven keyboards and more than 1200 stops.
