Dr. J. Stern sent a very interesting article:

Cartoonist breaks down how a whole generation learned classical music from watching old cartoons

“Lots of us learned classical music from watching old cartoons, so I’m going to identify the pieces that frequently popped up,” cartoonist Vincent Alexander begins his Twitter thread.

It’s an unlikely pairing, but – from Rhapsody Rabbit to The Cat Concerto – one that helped Warner Bros and Looney Tunes perfectly capture some of the best slapstick moments in cartoon history.

Vincent Alexander is a cartoonist and animator, whose most famous creation is superhero cartoon Musical Man and the Magic Kazoo. And his thread, which remembers the most iconic marriages of cartoon animals and classical melodies, has now reached millions of eyeballs around the world, reminding a whole generation of how the magic of Liszt and Mozart came into their lives through the small screen.”

Success of our students!
Great recital of KEMA winners.
CONGRATULATIONS!

Sister Davidica Scholarship Fund. Thank you, Dave Miller!

Dave Miller gave a brilliant presentation on April 29th about Sister Davidica Beschta, an extraordinary woman. She was an accomplished artist, great musician, organizer, and one of the founders of the Conservatory in 1925.

Mr. Dave Miller, genealogist, and is a relative of Sister Davidica. He cares deeply about music and music education for children.

We would like to thank Dave Miller for his constant Scholarship Fund support!
