Your significant other or a friend, has started taking lessons a while ago. You hear how she/he practices and, probably, you discuss some musical issues. 95th Anniversary of Holy Family Conservatory of Music in December

Holy Family Conservatory of Music, founded in 1925 by the Franciscan Sisters of Christian Charity to provide music instruction and performance will celebrate its 95th anniversary in December. Through these 95 years over 10,000 students have studied music at the Conservatory.

Sisters Davidica, Benjamin and Celerine were sent to live at St. Boniface Convent to generate musical interest among the students in the school. Many children expressed their interest in music lessons. Eventually the Sisters needed a larger space to teach music lessons and classes. In September 1925 the search began to purchase a place.

The Sisters moved into a large brick home on South 11th Street of downtown Manitowoc in December of 1925. Furniture was sparse and for a brief period of time the Sisters used piano benches for tables to eat their meals. Holy Family Conservatory lessons began with just three pianos.

95th Anniversary of Holy Family Conservatory of Music in December

On Aug. 15, 2013, Holy Family Conservatory moved into the newly-constructed Franciscan Center for Music Education and Performance where all music instructions now take place.

Among students are people of all ages, between birth and 80+ years young. Everyone who loves music and has passion for it can come and start a beautiful journey at Holy Family Conservatory of Music.
